

Provider	Service information	Contact Information
Screening Services *Screening is by appointment only – no drop-in sessions
Breast Screening	Criteria: Women aged 50 – 71 will be invited automatically every three years. Women aged over 71 will not automatically be invited but can still have screening every three years if they want to. Patients will need to contact their local breast screening service to arrange this. Annual screening for very high risk women who have been genetically assessed. Trans man, trans woman or non-binary individuals will be invited according to the above age criteria if they are registered as female with a GP. Trans and non-binary cancer screening Cancer Research UK NHS population screening: information for trans and non-binary people - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk) More information for people with a learning disability: Breast screening: easy guide - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)	01482 622300 Humberside Breast Care Unit Castle Hill Hospital Entrance 1a, Castle Road Cottingham East Yorkshire HU16 5JQ
Bowel Screening	Criteria: Patients aged between 54 and 74, are invited to take part in bowel cancer screening every two years. The age for testing has recently been extended to include people aged 50 and 52. If aged 75 or over, a screening test can be requested by calling the free bowel cancer screening helpline on 0800 707 60 60. Patients can call the screening helpline on 0800 707 60 60 or visit Bowel cancer screening - NHS for more information. Further information about the FIT test and how to use it is available to download in 10 different languages including Polish, Urdu, Arabic and Chinese (simplified and traditional), you can also download an easy read information booklet https://www.hull.nhs.uk/bowel/.	0800 707 60 60 - free bowel cancer screening helpline

Abnormal Aortic Aneurysm (AAA) Screening	Criteria: Men in the year they turn 65 years old. Men who are over 65 years and have not been screened before can ask for a test by contacting the local AAA screening service. AAA Screening Leaflet - for translations click Abdominal aortic aneurysm screening: invitation leaflet at top of screen A guide to abdominal aortic aneurysm screening (AAA) for people with learning disabilities - opens video Trans women, in the year they turn 65 years old, registered with a GP as female can request a screen by contacting the programme directly NHS population screening: information for trans and non-binary people - GOV.UK A guide to abdominal aortic aneurysm (AAA) screening for people with learning disabilities. https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/abdominal-aortic-aneurysm-screening-invitation-leaflet/html-version	01482 675507 - AAA screening service (voicemail available – replies same or next working day) Vascular Department 1st Floor Hull Royal Infirmary Anlaby Hull HU3 2JZ
Diabetic Eye Screening (DESP)	Criteria: Diabetics aged 12 or over receive an invite every 1 or 2 years. Diabetic eye screening: description in brief - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk)	01482 674474 Local Service Office Diabetic Eye Screening Alderson House Hull Royal Infirmary Hull HU3 2JZ

Cervical Screening (a smear test)	Criteria: Offered to women and people with a cervix aged 25 to 64. <table><tr><th>Patient age</th><th>When patient is invited</th></tr><tr><td>Under 25</td><td>Up to 6 months before turning 25</td></tr><tr><td>25 to 49</td><td>Every 3 years</td></tr><tr><td>50 to 64</td><td>Every 5 years</td></tr><tr><td>65 or older</td><td>If a recent test was abnormal</td></tr></table> Patients can book an appointment as soon as they receive an invitation letter. If a patient has missed their last cervical screening, they do not need to wait for a letter to book an appointment. Support for people with a learning disability: Cervical screening: an easy guide - GOV.UK (www.gov.uk) Standard information (non easy read) for specific population groups inc lesbian and bisexual women, people who find it hard to attend and information for trans people: Cervical screening: information leaflets - GOV.UK	Patient age	When patient is invited	Under 25	Up to 6 months before turning 25	25 to 49	Every 3 years	50 to 64	Every 5 years	65 or older	If a recent test was abnormal	Book through GP practice pathways or some local integrated sexual health clinics for a cervical screening test (smear).
Patient age	When patient is invited
Under 25	Up to 6 months before turning 25
25 to 49	Every 3 years
50 to 64	Every 5 years
65 or older	If a recent test was abnormal
Additional information to support population groups eligible for screening	NHS population screening: information for trans and non-binary people - GOV.UK NHS population screening: access and order leaflets - GOV.UK											